About Aléia

Power dressing is not a dress code, it's a feeling. We design powerfully versatile pieces that are comfortable enough to wear all day, and sharp enough to make women feel like their most confident, commanding selves.

The Elemental Collection

Inspired by the quiet strength of nature and the raw energy of New York City, Elemental is a capsule collection grounded in modern minimalism. Built on the belief that strength lives in simplicity, not spectacle, this collection clears the excess to reveal what endures - elegance, comfort, and lasting presence.

Concept

We're not just about outfits - we're here to drive a mindset shift. We believe what you wear isn't superficial, it's strategic. Style influences how you show up, how you lead, and how you feel. Aléia is designed to help women step into the world with power, purpose, and presence.

TERRA BLAZER

This is a single-breasted blazer with a sharp notched lapel, lightly padded shoulders, and functional welt pockets.

Designed with a tailored silhouette that can be sized up for an effortless oversized fit, it's breathable, movement-friendly, and versatile enough for all-day wear.

GRAPHITE BLAZER

The Graphite Blazer is a single-breasted style with a notched lapel, lightly padded shoulders, and a double-flap design with functional pockets on each side.

Cut with a cinched waist, it creates a sculpted silhouette that's equal parts structured and sophisticated.

EMBER TROUSERS

The goes-with-everything wide leg trouser. Designed with a high-rise fit, front pleats, and a fluid drape, they strike the balance between tailored polish and everyday ease.

LUNA SKIRT

The skirt that thinks like trousers. The Luna Skirt is a high-waisted, ankle-grazing pencil silhouette with clean trouser-inspired detailing and a back slit for ease of movement.

ETHER BLOUSE

The Ether Blouse brings a touch of softness to power dressing, with its delicate ruffle-trimmed collar, billowed sleeves, and lustrous pearl buttons.

QUARTZ SHIRT

The Quartz Shirt is a reimagined classic with a cinched waist silhouette that flatters while leaving room for movement.

It's crisp yet comfortable, with elongated cuffs and an open V-front hem that gives you styling versatility - wear it untucked for a modern edge or tucked in for a polished, formal look.

DUNE DRESS

The Dune Dress is a modern take on the classic shirt dress, designed with a collared neckline, a relaxed A-line cut, and a midi length that moves with ease.
